

25. ~ into (3)

pg 110-13

take into (1)	...を~に連れ込む	The police took him into the interrogation room.
take into (2)	...を~に迎え入れる	My uncle took me into the family business.
turn ... into	...に変わる・変える	The witch turned the prince into a frog.

talk ... into	...を説得して~させる	My boss talked me into doing overtime on Friday.
talk -self into	~しようと自分に言い聞かせる	He talked himself into going on a diet.

throw ... into (1)	...を~に放り込む	Don't throw your dirty socks into the corner! Put them in the wash.
throw ... into (2)	~を（牢屋などに）にぶち込む	The police threw the criminal into jail.
throw -self into	熱心に~に従事する	I threw myself into my job.

Comprehension

1. Can you _____ your friend _____ coming with us on our trip?
2. Some people _____ violent monsters when they drink alcohol.
3. We _____ our daughter's husband _____ the family.
4. I really need to _____ my studies if I want to graduate with good grades.

Discussion

1. What is something you have talked your partner/friend into doing?
2. Should we throw minor criminals into jail or give them community service as punishment?
3. Would you ever consider taking an orphan into your family?
4. Have you ever talked yourself into doing something you don't want to do?