

43. ~ out (6)

pg 168-171

pick out (1)	選び出す	I picked out this sweater for you. Do you like it?
pick out (2)	...を見分ける、見つけ出す	The police couldn't pick out the terrorist in the crowd.
pull out (1)	道路に出ていく	The car pulled out suddenly without indicating.
pull out of (2)	出ていく (反対 : pull in to)	There were many people waiting for the train to pull out of the station.
pull out of (3)	手を引く、撤退する	North Korea often pulls out of talks about nuclear arms.
put ... out (1)	(手など) を差し出す	She put out her hand expecting a handshake.
put ... out (2)	...を外へ出す	Make sure you put out the cat.
put ... out (3)	...を用意する、出しておく	My wife put out my suit for the wedding.
put ... out (4)	(タバコ、火) を消す	Double-check that you have put out your cigarette.

Comprehension

1. I sometimes forget to _____ the trash on collection day.
2. If the USA _____ their free trade agreement with Japan, it will be bad for business.
3. I always have a hard time _____ clothes at Uniqlo.
4. Many elderly drivers _____ their driveway without checking for other cars.

Discussion

1. Does it take you a long time to pick out clothes or food while shopping?
2. Should Japan pull out of its military agreements with the USA and defend itself?
3. Is it fair to pick out potential terrorists based on their looks?
4. Do you put out your clothes the night before or on the day?