

21. ~ in (4)

pg 100-103

stand in for	代役を務める	I'm a bit busy today. Would you mind standing in for me?
stick in (1)	(に) 突き刺さる	The splinter is stuck in my finger and I can't get it out.
stick in (2)	(記憶や思い出)に残る	The memory of my wedding day is stuck in my mind forever.
take in (1)	(空気・観光を) 吸い込む・楽しむ	I really want to take in the sights when I travel to Italy take ... in (2)	...を警察に連行する	The police took the suspect in last night.
take ... in (3)	(衣服など) の丈や幅を詰める	Can you please take in my jeans around the waist?
be taken in by	(~に) 騙される	I won't be taken in by the door to door salesman.

Comprehension

1. A lot of older people are _____ "ore-ore" scammers who claim to be their kids needing money.
2. When I travel I really want to _____ as many sights as possible.
3. Bad memories tend to _____ our minds more than good ones.
4. I was a bit disappointed when an understudy _____ the famous actor in the play.

Discussion

1. When you travel, do you take in the sights, or prefer to go shopping, or relax in the hotel?
2. What is a good or bad memory that has stuck in your mind? How can we focus on good memories?
3. Have you ever been taken in by someone?
4. If your family member committed a crime, would you take them in or hide them?